

GOOD PROGRESS BEING MADE AT NEW PLANT

Drying Kiln Built And Foundry Now in Operation at the R. R. Stoner Factory—Orders Coming in

The preparatory work in connection with the R. R. Stoner manufacturing plant here is progressing favorably. The building for the drying kiln is completed and the steam pipes are now being connected up. The machinery on the second floor which is to be used as the wood working department, is set in place and all the machinery and benches necessary for the building of grain tanks, wagon boxes, etc., are ready to start operations on a very simplified and systematic basis. The country in connection with this plant has also been overhauled and two experienced foundrymen are now on the job getting the patterns and must ready for all the iron work to be used on the articles to be manufactured. The first casting of the machine shop is to be made on Saturday of this week, and three more foundry men will be added to the staff within a few weeks. At the present time the machine shop is kept busy doing all kinds of repair work for the other industries in town, farmers and the surrounding district and from plants in outside points.

Word has been received from R. R. Stoner, proprietor of this plant, who is now on a trip through the western part of the province, exhibiting his grain tank, and he states he is working with great success, taking orders at every point visited.

Elevator to Open Up Next Monday

As the lease on D. Bradford's elevator here has expired, he will now take it over again and run it himself for this season.

The elevator will be opened up for business next Monday morning and will continue in operation for the rest of the season, when grain in any quantities will be handled. R. Bradford informs us it is his intention to make this one of the most profitable elevators in the country for farmers to deal with. He says he believes in small profits and big returns and by practicing this he hopes to give the farmers the best of satisfaction and service. Grain of all kinds will be taken in at this elevator any time after next Monday morning.

Margin of 10 Cents Per Pound

According to the report of W. F. O'Connor, the commissioner appointed to investigate the high cost of living, one western company sold over 200,000 pounds of butter at a margin of ten cents per pound. The same commissioner finds that a company with which Mr. Flavell is connected cleared up over five million dollars on bacon and eggs. The crime for which Roger Casement was hanged was scarcely any worse than this, but here we make bacon out of the men engaged in making big profits in war time.

DISMISSED NEUTRAL GETS TWO YEARS

Phil Beck, a Danish wholesale merchant and exporter, was sentenced to two years' imprisonment last week, thus disposing of a celebrated case for violation of the Danish exportations. Beck was arrested in August, 1916, after a German cruiser had captured the Danish steamer Ydan, while bound from Frederikshavn, Jutland, for Copenhagen, with 600 cases of lead on board consigned largely to Beck. It was suspected that the capture was arranged with Beck's connivance to simplify the problem of delivery of the lead to Germany.

The correspondent of the London Times at Russian southwest headquarters, after describing the destruction and waste of the Russian troops, says Gen. Kornilov's measures against indiscipline have been approved and that he is executing deserters wholesale.

Chatauquan at Hat Is Well Worth Seeing

The Chatauquan which is being held at Medicine Hat this week and next Monday, is meeting with great success. Those from here who have visited it say it is well worth going miles to see. On Friday night of this week the Chatauquan orchestra and M. L. O'Brien, soloist, will furnish the musical program. Saturday evening the Scotch Concert Party will be present, and J. C. Herberman will deliver his popular lecture, "Life's Lessons." Next Monday evening the entire program will be put on by the famous Waikiki Hawaiian Quintet. These are considered the best entertainers on the road today. For the balance of the engagement there will also be morning sessions special arranged to be of interest to the children and also afternoon performances.

AN APOLOGY.

Owing to the large amount of space occupied in this issue for advertising the list of property to be sold at the tax sale, the Review, from a news standpoint, is not up to its usual standard. For this we apologize to our readers. Under normal conditions we should have printed extra pages, but, owing to extra work in preparing the list as it appears in this issue and the impossibility of securing additional help, this was impossible this week. However, next week we hope to be able to turn out a five page paper and give our usual amount of reading matter.

Potatoe Crop Worth $ 800 Per Acre

To show the cost of living in this it is only necessary to quote the prices ranging during the last two years for early potatoes in the district where that necessary article of food forms a large proportion of the diet. Prices: In 1914, 1915, 1916, 1917.

In 1914, just a month ago, according to an old citizen exchange, a sale held near Maybelle, the top prices realized for an acre of potatoes was nearly $800 per acre.

The price during the previous year for the same plot of 25 acres was $400.

There are evidently some boys or men in town who are using 22 calibre rifles very carelessly. One day this week W. J. Fairbairn discovered a small round hole in his parlor window and on further investigation found a bullet on his parlor floor just in front of the fire place. Fortunately no one was in the path of the bullet but Redcliff might have had an interesting case of manslaughter if not for this.

This should serve as a warning to those who fire arms in town.

One of our subscribers in Medicine Hat says that in future any farmer in this district need the services of the provincial police they should not be afraid of their neighbors who have whiskey in the house. The law officers and they will have no trouble in getting them out. Hanging down a horse or cattle thief is not exciting enough for the provincial police. They want something with a little kick in it.

Cutting Commences On Spring Plowing

The continual hot weather during the last two weeks in July and this kind of moisture has caused the grain to grow much more quickly than was expected for it. As a result plowing has been two to three weeks earlier than usual and the grain will not be as good as it otherwise would have been.

Already a number of farmers are getting what was put in on spring plowing. Among these are G. H. Harty, E. Belcher, Redford Bros. and R. Roul. Although the straw is very short the heads appear to be in much better condition than was thought possible under the weather conditions. Those who are now cutting expect to average about ten bushels to the acre off the spring plowing.

The weather during the past week has been much more favorable for the fall plowing for the summer fallow. The fall plowing days allowed the grain to get in much earlier than was expected. If present weather conditions continue cutting on the summer fallow will be general in about ten days but a good shower would delay this a few days. Summer fallow in most cases is expected to go around 20 bushels to the acre.

Some Suggestions In Buttermaking

In Bulletin No. 53 of the Dairy and Cold Storage Branch of the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, an article deals with the process of buttermaking from the raw milk which it is ready for use. It points out the defects sometimes found in dairy butter and explains how they are caused and lists of the conditions that are necessary to produce first-class cream, of available methods in creaming, of the use of the separator.

It is pointed out that butter can be made from milk of English or French, from the Committee on the publications branch of the Department of Agriculture.

MEETS WITH APPROVAL

There is general approval of the income tax introduced in the house at Ottawa last week. The people have asked for such a tax, believing it fair and equitable. If adequate machinery is devised for its collection, Sir Thomas White's estimate that the revenue would be $20,000,000, will probably be exceeded.

THE REDCLIFF REVIEW, THURSDAY, AUGUST 2, 1917

[illegible]

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mrs. D. Smith and son Lawson, are visiting friends in Banff View, Sask.

The advertising of intoxicants is now prohibited in Alberta papers.

Alberta is the only province in the west that has a good hay crop this season.

Harle Allan, of Graham, is visiting in town this week, the guest of Leonard Hicks.

The list of property to be put up for auction at the tax sale here on Aug. 31st appears in this issue.

POSITION WANTED—By book-keeper and stenographer. Apply at the Review office.

D. Broadfoot spent this week in Calgary on business. While there he sold a car load of horses from his ranch north of town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Debolli and family have just moved to town, are now comfortably settled in their new home in the house previously occupied by I. H. Bryant.

Progress for the sports and garden concert under the auspices of the managers of the Presbyterian church are now in progress. The event will be held in the town park on Thursday, August 9th.

During the past week D. Broadfoot has had some hard luck with his horses on his ranch north of town. One stallion was found dead on the prairie and the following day his prize Clydesdale "Larkin's Pride" broke his leg. Although the latter is still alive and being nursed along it is feared he cannot recover and will have to be shot.

Chief of Police Dunnett received word this week that his nephew, Flight Lieut. S. Mowat, had been killed in action. Young Mowat had made great progress in the service and broke the record for air work. He was to have been made an instructor but death robbed him of this distinction. This is the second nephew Mr. Dunnett has lost in this war.
